U.S. Small Business Administration

409 Third Street SW

Washington, DC 20416

Eisenhower Conference Room B

Teleconference Available

Agenda

I. Welcome and Introduction to the Office of Advocacy (2:00 p.m. – 2:10 p.m.)

Major Clark, Acting Chief Counsel, SBA Office of Advocacy

Janis Reyes, Assistant Chief Counsel, SBA Office of Advocacy

II. DOJ's Briefing on Current ADA Requirements (2:10 p.m. – 2:40 p.m.)

Representatives from the Department of Justice's Disability Rights Section have been invited to provide a high-level introduction on three Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) hot topics for small businesses—physical accessibility, website accessibility, and service animals.

III. Small Business Feedback on ADA issues (2:40 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.)

There will be an opportunity for small businesses to share their experiences on these issues and other ADA areas and provide general feedback during a DOJ Listening Session. Please note that during the roundtable, DOJ will not be seeking any collective consensus on these issues and any comments made during this roundtable will not be considered official comments on any past, present, or future DOJ rulemaking.

IV. Adjourn (4:00 p.m.)

Roundtable meetings are open to all interested persons, with the exception of the press, in order to facilitate an open and frank discussion about small business-related issues. Agendas and presentations are available to all, including the press. Anyone who would like to receive roundtable agendas or presentations, or be included in the regular distribution, should forward such requests to Janis.Reyes@sba.gov. The purpose of these roundtable meetings is to exchange opinions, facts, and information and to obtain the attendees' individual views and opinions regarding small business concerns. The meetings are not intended to communicate or achieve any consensus positions of the attendees. Please note that this meeting will not be recorded.
